Re: Sepracor, Inc. v. Dey, L.P. and Dey, Inc.
C.A. No. 06-113- (MPT); (Consolidated)

Dear Judge Thyng:

Your Honor may recall that during the April 18, 2007 teleconference in this matter, the Court granted Sepracor's request for a two-week extension of its deadline to respond to Dey's Second Set of Interrogatories on the condition that Sepracor provide "appropriate responses." (Tr. at 13) The Court also warned Sepracor: "And if they're not, I'll take the measures I deem necessary," and told Dey's counsel: "to the extent ... you have a problem with the answers ... I will try to find some place in my calendar to address it so we can try to deal with the concerns sooner rather than later." (Tr. 13-14)

Having now had the opportunity to review Sepracor's interrogatory responses (which are attached for the Court's convenience), we regret to inform the Court that several responses (Nos. 19, 21-24, 28-29 and 41) were seriously deficient, as described below:
